

planned conference program

"Autonomy in Childbirth
- Women's voice in Europe -
- European Conference in Sanski Most -"

28.04.2018. (saturday)

9.00 - 09.30	Registration
09.30	Introduction: Adisa Hotić, Centar "Fenix" Elisabeth Geisel, ENCA Dolores Radonić, Prirodan porod ENCA Song Maria Andreoulaki
10.00 - 12.30	Plenary sessions English with translation to bosnian Moderation/Chair Hannie Oor
10.00 - 10.40	Elisabeth Geisel: "To give birth or to be delivered - a question of setting? Birth physiology revisited", GfG Germany
10.40 - 11.20	Prim. dr. Fatima Klempić Dautbašić: "Autonomy in birth - a factor for shorter duration of labour?", Porodilište Plava poliklinika, Tuzla, Bosnia & Herzegovina
11.20 - 12.00	Beverley Beech: "Cascade of intervention: The short and long-term impact on women and babies", AIMS, United Kingdom
12.00 - 14.00	Lunch Encounter with the speakers and representatives from 15 European Countries
14.00 - 14.40	Daniela Drandić: "The cut above and the cut below in Europe", RODA Croatia
14.40 - 15.20	Anna Zdral: "The Mother's voice has got the power to change", Rodzic po ludzku, Poland
15.20 - 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 - 17.00	Workshop's 1. "How to use the Rebozo at birth?", Thea van Tuyl, childbirth educator 2. "Eva Reich's Butterfly Touch Massage before, during and after birth - a therapeutic tool for the whole family", Maria Andreoulaki, doula/doula course facilitator, BTM Teacher. 3. "Birthplan - a mean of communication between the birthing woman and the medical staff", dr. Amira Čerimagić, doula, Evidence Based Birth Instructor
17.00 - 17.30	Discussion and Conclusion

the organizer reserves the right to make changes